Sunday worship 8:00 & 10:30 am Sunday School for ALL 9:15 am Office Hours: 9am - 4pm Monday - Thursday (Closed 12pm-1pm for lunch)

Dear Saints of Our Saviour's, It's September, which means it's fall, y'all! – a new season, with new opportunities to serve and glorify the Lord our God. I am praying that you're all settled into your fall routines these days as your children and youth are back to schools, Sunday Schools – both for adults and children – and Wednesday night Bible Study, are all in session, and God's people are back to worshiping Him together every Sunday. What a season this will be! Needless to say, I am very excited for all that lies ahead this fall and I pray that you are too.

One of the things that I'm especially excited about this month is something that I've been told we've not done in a long time. So, I'm excited about re-introducing it because it is part and partial to our callings as peoples of God and as disciples of Jesus. I am talking about the Christian practice of "Stewardship".

In my thirty years of ministry, it's been my experience that when the word, "stewardship" is mentioned at church, lots of eyes are likely rolled and deep groans are loudly heard—just as people bolt for the door with one hand on their wallets and purses. Why is this? Because, in too many congregations, the word "stewardship" has become a cheesy euphemism for "We want your money." This is a shame, for as Lutherans, the concept and practice of stewardship lies at the very center of what it means to be disciples of Jesus. In other words, the practice and application of stewardship isn't a once-a-year, or once-in-a-while thing, but rather it's a way of life. As Dr. Clarence Stoughton (1895-1975), an internationally known Lutheran educator rightly put it, "Stewardship is everything we do after we say, 'I believe'".

Friends, this practice of faithful stewardship ought to ring familiar to us Lutherans. In fact, on Sunday, September 3rd, when we launch our focus on stewardship, we shall once again pray together the Offertory Prayer of the Church – the one that so many of you knew by heart. Not only that, but this month's stewardship focus will be rooted in scriptures and in this very prayer as we rediscover together the important connection between being stewards and disciples of Jesus.

Yes, the Offertory Prayer that we shall pray together every week in both worship services will help us understand anew that stewardship is more than whether, or not, we give our money to God's mission in the world. It's also about how we use every good blessing that God has entrusted to us in this life. I pray that you and your family will make it a top priority to join us on this faith journey throughout this month of September – it's important! And if you should want to roll your eyes about "stewardship", I beg you to do so undetected by others; or if you should groan at the mention of the word, please do it in silence...but most importantly, come!

Happy and blessed fall, y'all! Pastor La

Please provide him with contact information for your suggested recipient. Suggestions must be received by Monday, September 25th to be considered. Next Meeting: Tuesday, September 26th at 5:30 pm in the Conference Room

We have heard the saying "practice makes perfect." We don't expect ourselves to try a new hobby or skill and immediately become a professional. Tom Brady did not win 7 Superbowl rings without practice and hard work. Taylor Swift didn't just decide to pick up a quitar one day and immediately become a grammy- winning song writer. She had to put forth effort. These two individuals didn't just sit and expect the knowledge and skill to just come to them. Many of you who do extracurricular activities understand this concept of practicing to better your skills. You have dedicated after-school hours to practice, and even have practice times at home and on the weekends. But what about our faith? How do we "practice" our faith? In other words- what are ways that we as students and as parents, develop our skills as followers of Christ? If we are only "practicing" during our church services on Sunday for one hour a day- that is simply not enough! We need to be attending Sunday school, various bible studies, read our bibles together and pray. As well as reading and hearing God's word- we need to also be DOING what Jesus commanded. We can't just read about how to be a better football player and expect to throw touchdown passes every game - you have to go and practice!! I have heard parents (and others) say "I am not as well versed in scripture as I should be." This is nothing to be ashamed of-there is so much we can all learn. But if you are not making a commitment to be in church and participate in learning God's word inside as well as outside this building-you are not giving yourself the opportunity to grow in your faith or knowledge. While we will never be "perfect" in our faith- we are doing ourselves a great disservice when we don't "practice" it. I challenge you this month to find areas in your life where you are lacking, and practice towards getting better. For the Woodsons, we will be working on taking more time to pray as a family. I look forward to hearing what you are working on for the month of September.

CAMP: Camp registration will open this month. We don't have exact dates yet, but please be thinking about registering. Camp Eagle is a great opportunity to spend a week submersed in the word of God in the beautiful Texas Hill Country. Tabitha Quilting Ministry is looking for people who would like to help with the quilt making process. We have lots of fabric that needs to be cut into 11" x 11" squares so they can be sewn into quilt tops. This is a way for many to help without having to leave your home. It can be done day or night at your convenience. Templates measuring 11" x 11" are available for your use. Select a pretty fabric from the container and return the cut fabric to the same container when you have finished the cutting. We would also love for you to join us at the church on Tuesdays but if you prefer doing this project at home, we can make that happen too. Contact Jean Gisler for more info.

2024 BUDGET TIME

It is budget time. The 2024 budget is currently being developed. If your ministry or committee has any changes or additions for 2024, please get with Sally in the church office. Deadline is September  $20^{th}$ .

Mission: More Than a Middle Name: As an association of congregations, I love our name: Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ. It brilliantly captures our aspirations: a network of autonomous congregations united by a Lutheran theological foundation and a common commitment to a greater mission for Jesus Christ in the world!

We recognize four core values that shape our association. We are 1) Free in Christ, 2) Accountable to One Another, 3) Rooted in the Scriptures and Lutheran Confessions, and 4) Working Together to Fulfill Christ Great Commission to Go and Make Disciples of All Nations. While all values are important, it is the fourth one that defines our purpose... our mission.

Yet as I survey our congregations, this fourth value is far less obvious. If you were to ask someone to observe our member congregations and describe our association based on what our churches are doing and how they are spending time and resources, I doubt that our mission to go make disciples of all nations would be noted as our clear and obvious purpose.

This realization has grown clearer to me in recent months. I came across an LCMC congregation's website that publicly claims the first three of our association's core values while completely omitting any mention of the fourth! Additionally, during a meeting of LCMC pastors, a colleague stated that a Lutheran understanding of mission is simply the proper proclamation of the gospel and administration of the sacraments. I respectfully challenged this notion, expressing that although fulfilling the Great Commission includes proper gospel proclamation and sacrament administration, these actions alone do not equate to going and making disciples of all nations. We need to take Jesus' words in Matthew 28 seriously.

I lament that, in an association that professes the centrality of our mission for Christ in its name and beautifully articulates how we are working together to carryout Christ's Great Commission as the fulfillment of this mission, mission may be little more than a middle name to us!

So, I ask you, pastors and churches: what does your church's mission look like? If an unbiased observer were to spend time within your community to draft a report describing who you are as a church and what your church is about, what would it say? How is your church working together to fulfill Christ's Great Commission to go make disciples of all nations?

This, my friends, is our mission... our purpose. I pray that we don't forget it, dumb it down, or drop it off the list. Mission is more than our middle name!
